

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY TRANSPORTATION SHUTTLE (GUTS):

<http://otm.georgetown.edu/guts/>

Georgetown University operates free shuttles that run regularly between the University and the Red Line (Dupont Circle), the Orange and Blue Lines (Rosslyn), and 2233 Wisconsin Ave. NW (near GU Tax Office), North Arlington (Arlington Loop), as well as the Georgetown Law Center, in downtown DC (near Union Station). Schedules and bus stop locations may be found on their web site.

SAFERIDES, INDIVIDUAL ESCORTS, AND NEIGHBORHOOD SHUTTLES:

<http://publicsafety.georgetown.edu/programsandservices/12862.html>

The SafeRides program provides free, safe transportation for students to and from campus and adjacent neighborhoods. Two Neighborhood Shuttles operate during the academic year to and from the main gates of campus (37th and O Streets) in continuous loops through Burleith, West Georgetown, and M Street. Individual escorts are available from DPS 24/7 for those in need of special assistance or with personal safety concerns. Contact (202) 784-RIDE (7433) for more details.

DC CIRCULATOR BUS: www.dccirculator.com

Operates a Georgetown– Union Station route near campus (Wisconsin Ave.) and runs from 7 am - 9 pm daily. Night service from Whitehaven Street (Georgetown) to 17th and K Street (Farragut North metro station) runs from 9 pm until midnight from Sunday – Thursday and until 2am Friday – Saturday (bus runs every 10 minutes). Fare: $1 (exact change or SmartTrip). See webpage for other routes throughout the city.

METRO BUS AND METRO RAIL: <http://www.wmata.com/>

Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority runs an extensive web of public transportation in Washington, DC and surrounding areas. Transfers between Metro buses and rail are free within a three-hour period if you use the rechargeable SmartTrip card, which you can purchase online or at any CVS/Pharmacy. Metro Bus routes cover most of the city and surrounding areas but the lines that have stops closest to the main campus are: G2, D1-D3, D4, D5, D6 and 38B. Fare; $1.70 in exact change or $1.50 with SmartTrip. Metro Rail has five lines. The nearest Metro stops to main campus are in Rosslyn (Blue and Orange lines) and Dupont Circle (Red line). Trains run from 5am (7am Sat. & Sun.) to midnight, with extended service until 3am on Fri. & Sat. Fares range from $1.95 to $5.00 depending on time of day and distance traveled. Check the website for a detailed trip planner, maps and hours of operation.

TAXI: www.commuterpage.com/taxi.htm

There are numerous taxi companies operating within DC, Virginia and Maryland. Fares are determined by meters. A 10-15% tip on the cab fare is customary. For more information on various taxi services, please visit their web site. For information regarding your rights as a taxi customer and frequently asked questions (passenger questions), please see: <http://dctaxi.dc.gov>.

ZIPCAR: www.zipcar.com/georgetown/

Zipcar is a car-sharing program that lets you access cars for approximately $8-11.25/hr & $74-83/day –insurance and gas included. A reduced annual fee of $15 for Georgetown students will be applied if you sign up with your GU email address.

CAR2GO: <http://auxiliary.georgetown.edu/auxiliary.georgetown.edu/car2go> car2go, the only point A to point B carsharing service in the DC area, is now conveniently located on the Georgetown University campus, with two spaces in front of the Hoya Federal Credit Union (between Shaw Field and the Medical Campus) and two across the street from McCarthy Hall.

CAPITAL BIKESHARE: http://www.capitalbikeshare.com/station_map

This exciting program launched in 2008 in the DC and Arlington area. Users may subscribe for one day ($7), one month ($25), or one year ($75), and have unlimited access to over 1100 bikes at 110 stations. Bikes are free to users for the first 30 minutes of every trip. After 30 minutes, usage fees accrue. However, if you check the bike in before 30 minutes are up, you can immediately take it out again and have it for another 30 minutes at no charge. For the nearest station, go to the front gates at 37th and O Street. To sign up online, please to to: <https://www.capitalbikeshare.com/signup>.