How follow-up happens →

The Office of Neighborhood Life was involved in 305 total contacts in the Fall 2013 semester. There is an appropriate follow-up for each contact, described in this diagram.

number of contacts = 305

contacts = 214

contacts = 116

incidents = 80

incidents = 72

incidents = 51

Less 91 contacts with non-GU or unknown individuals. 30% of all contacts do not involve Georgetown students.

Less 98 contacts related to: proactive stops by SNAP, no noise found at a property, GERMS, students and neighbors asking for other types of assistance, etc.

Less the 36 duplicate contacts that were combined and noted in a single incident report (i.e 3 phone calls about 1 incident).

Less the 8 incidents referred to the Office of Student Conduct that were not noise from a property (i.e., public urination, kicking over trash cans, etc.).

Less the 21 incidents that were referred to the Office of Student Conduct for noise at a property and no GU students were found responsible after adjudication.

51 incidents were referred to the Office of Student Conduct for noise at a property and at least one GU Student held responsible. See table below for more information related to Student Conduct.
